ADA LEFTWING EXTREMISTS PLAN BLOODLESS REVOLUTION FOR A SOCIALIST USA

HEADS A.D.L. (JEWISH FBI)

The Senate Republican Policy Committee Report, April 7, 1958, defined the Americans For Democratic Action (ADA) as "a group of left-wing Democrats who hope, as either the senior or junior partner of a labor alliance, to capture the Democratic Party and bring about a system which would amount to national Socialism in America."

In 1942 the House Committee on Un-American Activities disclosed a popular front organization known as the Union for Democratic Action (UDA). The Committee found that 50 UDA leaders had communist connections. Because so many "liberals" found themselves in the corner with the communists and fellow-travelers in advancing their pet policies, a sort of purification rite became necessary, thus the Americans for Democratic Action was born.

This 1947 change-in-name-only ceremony carried with it at least 29 of the 50 UDA leaders. (House Report 2277, 2nd Session, 77th Congress).

The Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) set out to prove that it is possible in America to be ultra-radical without being communist, to advocate change in our politico-economic traditions without being disloyal. Like their English Fabian cousins, the ADA never admits that it is selling socialism. It double-talks about planned economy, social reforms, constitutional rights, civil liberties and patriotism, while working for their ultimate goal: the replacement of the free enterprise system with Marxian Socialism.

The ADA has perverted the word liberalism to mean socialism, and we must never forget that a socialist is nothing more than a house-broken communist.

The 1964 ADA Platform calls for:

Immediate start of negotiations towards U. S. recognition of Red China and its admission to the United Nations, without abandoning Formosa (a practical impossibility);

Neutralization (in effect) of all Southeast Asia;

General and complete disarmament, enforced by the United Nations;

Defeat of all proposals to reverse or modify the Warren Court's ruling against public school prayers and Bible reading;

Vigorous enforcement of the 1964 Civil Rights Act;

Abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

All of the ADA demands above listed are also pet demands of the U. S. Communist Party.

According to the Congressional Record, June 16, 1958, page 10280, the annual contribution from labor unions represents one-third of the ADA budget.

Walter Reuther, (Pres., United Auto Workers), Joseph Beirne (Pres., Communication Workers of America), James Carey (Pres., International Union of Electrical Workers), David Dubinsky (Pres., International Ladies

Dore Schary, National board member ADA, patron saint of Hollywood pinkos until driven out of his control of MGM, member of at least five communist fronts, holds annual award given by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and President of the sinister Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which recently came out with a 300-page report "Danger on the Right." What about the danger from the radical left?

Garment Workers) and Ralph Helstein (Pres., United Packinghouse Workers) are all members of the national board of the Americans for Democratic Action.

On December 16, 1955, Congressman Edgar Hiestand declared ADA vice chairman Walter Reuther to be "public enemy No. 1." Congressman Hiestand further stated that "nobody will be nominated President (by the Democrats) without the approval of Walter Reuther." (Nwk. Star-Ledger, Dec. 17, 1955)

At a Masonic Temple public meeting in Flint, Michigan, March 18, 1936, Walter Reuther gave a glowing account of his 18 month pilgrimage to Moscow (with his brother Victor), lauding the Soviet Union with fervent enthusiasm. In response to a question about religion in Russia, he said: "We do not believe in God, but that Man is God." Walter Reuther had breakfast with LBJ the same day he nominated his running mate for 1964.

James Carey (International Electrical Workers, Pres.) was a member of the National Council of American Peace Mobilization, cited as "subversive and communist" by the Attorney General (Dec. 4, 1947 & Sept. 21, 1948), and cited by the Special

WHO SAID THIS ABOUT L.B.J.?

"We all have reason to be grateful for him in the way he is handling Civil Rights and Poverty. I ought to rejoice and I do. I rub my eyes in amazement and surprise. His war on Poverty is a SOCIALISTIC approach . . ."

Committee on Un-American Activities as "one of the most seditious organizations which ever operated in the United States." (House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, page 5). Carey was Vice-Chairman of the American Youth Congress, also cited by the Attorney General Dec. 4, 1947 & Sept. 21, 1948). He served as a Committee member of the American League for Peace and Democracy, identified by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities as "The largest of the communist front movements in the United States . . . the organization was nothing more nor less than a bold advocate of treason." (House Report 2, Jan. 3, 1939, pages 69-71)

James Carey was also a sponsor of the American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, cited as a "communist front which defended communist teachers" by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities (House Report 2277, June 25, 1942, page 13).

David Dubinsky, the 1964 version of Sidney Hillman, apparently hand-picked the 1960 and 1964 Democratic Vice-Presidential candidates, and his latest maneuver was to engineer Bobby Kennedy's nomination as Democratic Senatorial candidate from New York State.

Ralph Helstein (Packinghouse Workers President) is a "Jewish civil rights soldier, who has been active on more fronts than can be accounted for" according to the National Jewish Post & Opinion of July 17, 1964.

The notorious cartoon depicting Jesus Christ as a seditionist, criminal anarchist and vagrant was displayed on the front page (bordered in red) of Helstein's UPWA newspaper "Packinghouse Worker, Dec. 1963 issue.

Ralph Helstein is a sponsor of Highlander Center (formerly Highlander Folk School) and a member of the Board of Directors of the League for Industrial Democracy (LID). Organized in 1905, the LID has penetrated practically every college, forming Socialist "Liberal Clubs" and forums to disseminate Socialism and has trained countless students in the principles of the Communist Manifesto. (The Roosevelt Red Record & Its Background, by Elizabeth Dilling, page 23)

Additional ADA national board members who are also affiliated with the League for Industrial Democracy are:

James Farmer, CORE National Director and an LID vice-president;

Albert Sprague Coolidge, LID Vice-President;

Amicus Most, LID Board of Directors.

Victor Reuther (Walter's brother) is also on the LID Board of Directors.

Dorothy Kenyon, an early associate of the League for Industrial Democracy, is listed as a 1964 member of the ADA national board. Dorothy Kenyon was a member (along with fellow ADAer, James Carey) of the cited American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom. She was a sponsor of the American-Russian Institute-N.Y., cited as "Communist" by the Attorney General April 27, 1949, and cited as a "Communist-controlled" organization which was intimately linked with the Institute of Pacific Relations. (Sen. Jud. Comm., Report 2050, July 2, '52, pp. 73, 95, 145 & 146).

Dorothy Kenyon was a sponsor of the Conference on Pan-American Democracy, cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities Committee, House Report 1311, March 29, 1944, pages 129 & 161). She was also a sponsor of the Coordinating Committee to Lift the (Spanish) Embargo, cited as one in a "series of Communist enterprises which have dealt with Spain and the Spanish Civil War..." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 2233, June 7, 1946, page 27).

Dorothy Kenyon was also a member of the Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain, identified as a "Communist lawyers' front organization" by the Special Comm. on Un-American Activities (House Report 1311, 3/29/44, pp. 168 & 169).

Is it any wonder that the 1964 platform of the Americans for Democratic Action urges "that the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives be discontinued" and that the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations be abolished? ? ?

A common denominator among the vice chairmen of the ADA is their extreme hatred and disdain for the so-called radical right.

In 1954, Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., (then ADA National Chairman) paid $8,500 in expenses to obtain derogatory and, as it turned out, fictitious information against the late Senator Joseph McCarthy. Rauh's escapade resulted in a six-count Federal perjury indictment involving his informant, Paul Hughes. Hughes claimed that Rauh knew the anti-McCarthy information was false when he bought it.

Joseph Rauh claimed that he had "been taken." The result was an acquittal on the first two counts of Hughes' indictment, and a hung jury on the last four counts. In November 1958, the government recommended that Hughes not be retried because "During the trial the credibility of the major government witnesses (including Joseph Rauh) was severely attacked by its defense..." (McCarthy and His Enemies, by Wm. Buckley-L. Brent Bozell, page 402).

Joseph Rauh served as legal secretary during the depression to Supreme Court Justices Benjamin Cardozo and Felix Frankfurter for 3 years. He has been a partner in the law firm of Rauh and Levy since 1947 when he helped found ADA.

The following appeared in the May-June 1947 "Partisan Review":

"If socialism is to preserve democracy, it must be brought about step by step in a way which will not disrupt the fabric of custom, law, and mutual confidence upon which personal rights depend. That is, the transition must be piece-meal; it must be parliamentary; it must respect civil liberties and due process of law... There seems no inherent obstacle to the gradual advance of socialism in the United States..."

The above was written by ADA Vice Chairman Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., a former JFK White House Aid, and more recently an aid to fellow ADA member, Senator Hubert Humphrey, 1964 Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate.

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. has also stated in a speech, "If America survives, she must dispense with the Christian myth." (Borger News Herald, June 23, 1963)

ADA Vice chairman Leon Keyserling was consultant to the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency (1935-37 & 1944-46); General Counsel, U.S. Housing Authority (1937-38); consultant for the Senate postwar committee appointed to explore reconversion problems; member, Council of Economic Advisers (1946-50), Chairman 1950-53.

In a Senate speech on April 21, 1952, the late Senator Joseph McCarthy stated that when Leon Keyserling was approached to join the Communist Party, he replied that he (Keyserling) "agreed with all the principles except the necessity for a Negro republic in the South" and the "Communist Party's theory that the U. S. could be communized only through a bloody revolution." Senator McCarthy also declared that Leon Keyserling at one time said: "We can communize this country without a revolution if we have the economic power." (INS dispatch, April 22, 1952; Cong. Record, 4/21/52, page 4153)

Senator McCarthy related on April 21, 1952 that "The evidence presented to the Board (Commerce Department's Loyalty Board) shows that Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling had been a member of the Communist Party and that she belonged to an unlimited number of Communist fronts." On March 4, 1964, Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling was appointed Director of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor by President Johnson. (U. S. News & World Report, March 16, 1964)

Leon Keyserling was one of the American Jewish leaders at the economic conference convened in Jerusalem (1953), where Israel's economic program was discussed and plans outlined for the flotation of the 2nd Israel Bond Issue.

At the May 1962 Convention of the Americans for Democratic Action, John P. Roche of the Jewish Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass. was picked as Natl. Chairman.

As previously stated, the "blessed ties that bind" the ADA members together is their mutual contempt for the "ultra-right."

The Reuther brothers (Vic and Wal) submitted their infamous Reuther Memorandum "The Radical Right in America Today" to former Attorney General Robert Kennedy on Dec. 19, 1961. Here are a few excerpts.

"... the radical right poses a far greater danger to the success of this country in its battle against international Communism than does the domestic Communist movement... we must gird ourselves for a long struggle against the radical right."

ADA National Board member, Dore Schary is National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL—Jewish FBI), which will release "Danger On The Right" in early October.

Arthur Schlesinger has written on "The Threat of the Radical Right." (N. Y. Times Magazine, June 17, 1962)

The ADA 1964 Platform "Program for Americans" closes with this paragraph:

"... the assassination of President John F. Kennedy epitomizes the consequences of hate and the totalitarian mentality of political extremes. The emergence of a radical right is especially dangerous today. Liberalism must oppose these forces with redoubled vigor."

The 1964 "platform" of the Communist Party, U.S.A. is expressed through a Sept. 1964 pamphlet by Communist spokesman Gus Hall—"The Eleventh Hour—Defeat the New Fascist Threat." On page 18 we find: "What is needed are a hundred thousand committees to defeat the ultra-Right." The closing paragraph (page 22) of "The Eleventh Hour" is as follows:

"We are Communists, and we are fighters for the broad issues of democracy and peace, part of democratic America. And so we are going to work with all of the forces who make up the legions of the broad people's democratic movement against the ultra-Right fascist conspiracy."

American principles and ideals are being betrayed by subterfuge and deception. This betrayal of the American way of life is spearheaded by the ADA radicals masquerading as "liberals." Unless their Trojan-horse methods are exposed and understood, America is doomed to be remade in the image of Marx.

Board Endorses Johnson-Humphrey

Statement from the National Board of Americans for Democratic Action meeting in Washington August 30, 1964.

"Americans for Democratic Action enthusiastically supports the Johnson-Humphrey ticket. Confronted by Goldwater's strident demands for a retreat to the 19th century, the Democratic Party did not scurry to cover but instead in its platform and its candidates chose to trumpet the assault, to confront squarely the Goldwater faction and its politics of despair, to summon all Americans to the implementation of our Democratic ideals.

Lyndon B. Johnson has superbly carried forward the ideals of John F. Kennedy and has demonstrated his full commitment to the liberal traditions of the Democratic Party and the American people. He has also moved boldly to initiate policies of his own, initiatives which indicate that the Johnson Administration—far from being a footnote to the Kennedy Administration—will chart its own course toward the vision of the 'Great Society'.

Hubert H. Humphrey has long been in the forefront of the struggle for freedom, justice and equality. From long friendship we of ADA know the breadth of his talents and the depth of his moral commitment and compassion. We applaud the President's choice and share with him the conviction that Hubert Humphrey is indeed the 'best man in the country' for the position of Vice President. We recognize that his election will mean the end of his organizational ties with ADA, but as Vice President he will give the nation an articulate and eloquent expression of liberal ideals as no other could do."

Supreme Court Strikes Again

"One Man, One Vote" -U. S. Supreme Court Ruling Attacks Your Property And Freedom

"State governments are geared almost exclusively to an agricultural economy and are unwilling or, because of built-in bias, unable to provide equal treatment to the urban citizen . . ."

—1964 Platform of Americans for Democratic Action (ADA).

When the 89th Congress of the United States convenes in January 1965, it will face one of the gravest constitutional crises in our nation's history. This became certain when the 88th Congress, in its haste to adjourn before November 3rd, went home without taking action to restrain or delay a U. S. Supreme Court decision (June 15, 1964) ordering that both Houses of all State Legislatures must be appointed on a population basis alone.

This decision was the result of a suit initiated in May 1961 by R. Peter Straus, an ADA national board member. The Court order (which was refused reconsideration on October 12) means that at least one branch of almost all the State Legislatures (mostly State Senates) will have to be re-organized and new members elected without delay.

Previously, most State Senates were apportioned to allow for geographical differences and legitimate minority interests. The net result has been that State Senates have had some power of restraint over the lower houses, just as the U. S. Senate by demand of the U. S. Constitution, checks the House of Representatives.

If the "one man, one vote" ruling is strictly adhered to, the trend will be toward an unchecked rule by the majority (cities and suburbs) and less protection for the minorities (small towns and rural areas). In 25 states, the residents of big cities and their suburbs could elect majorities of their State legislatures. In 15 States, 3 counties or less would be able to elect more than 50% of their legislators.

South Dakota's 30,000 American Indians would have practically no voice at all in the State Legislature. There would be only one Senator for each 10 or 12 counties in the farming and Indian areas. The State of Nevada would be controlled by the gambling capital of the United States, Las Vegas—if the Warren Court decision is to be enforced.

N. J.—AMONG THE "FIRST TO GO"

The structure of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, older than the Federal Constitution itself, now stands in jeopardy as one of the most sweeping constitutional lawsuits in New Jersey history is being launched.

On October 5, 1964, the New Jersey State Supreme Court began hearing arguments on a two-year-old suit seeking reapportionment of the State Legislature on a strict population basis. Under challenge is the legality of the N. J. State Constitution's allocation of one Senate seat and at least one Assembly seat per county.

Representing the N. J. Assembly, former State Senator Walter Jones urged the court to remain silent. Any declaration that the Legislature as presently constituted is invalid, he said, would be "literal anarchy; and possibly actual anarchy in some degree . . ."

Former State Senator Wesley Lance (Representing the N. J. Senate) argued that New Jersey had never released her right to maintain the system of government she had when she entered the Union. The reason, Lance contended, was that New Jersey withdrew her ratification of the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution before it was adopted in 1868. (The illegally-ratified 14th Amendment was the basis of the 'one man, one vote' Warren Court ruling of last June 15, 1964).

The Attorney-General of New Jersey, Arthur Sills, is representing the State (people) of New Jersey in the reapportionment suit before the State Supreme Court.

"REPRESENTING" THE PEOPLE

N. J. Attorney-General, Arthur J. Sills, Austrian-born Jew is "Jumping the Gun" in the N. J. State Assembly's Right of Protest against this unconstitutional ruling.

ADA NATIONAL BOARD MEMBER

R. Peter Straus, Jew and National Board Member of Americans for Democratic Action was responsible for the U. S. Supreme Court's "One Man, One Vote" ruling as a result of a suit initiated in May 1961.

Sills is an Austrian Jew, who couldn't wait to bar prayer and Bible reading from the N. J. public schools in accordance with the U. S. Supreme Court ban of June 1, 1963.

FRIEDLAND AND SON

The plaintiffs in the N. J. reapportionment suit are two labor leaders who are being represented by two zealous Jersey City lawyers, David and Jacob Friedland. Son David has devoted all of his time to this case for the past two years. In typical Talmudic hair-splitting fashion, David has even gone so far as to ask the State Agricultural Department to make soil analyses in each county—to show that it is illogical for legislators to represent land instead of people if the soil is the same in every county.

Papa Jake Friedland is a former N. J. Assemblyman who pushed the union labor program through the State Legislature in the 1940's, when the Hague machine ran Hudson County (which includes Jersey City).

Joseph Weintraub, the Chief Justice of the New Jersey State Supreme Court, has indicated that the Court will not delay a decision on the pending reapportionment suit to allow the N. J. State Legislature time to take corrective action—this, in spite of the fact that both Houses of the N. J. Legislature have been called into special session November 9, 1964, solely for the purpose of discussing the reapportionment issue.

—Seibel in "Richmond Times-Dispatch"
"LEGALIZED RAID . . ."

If the State's Republican form of government, as guaranteed in Article IV, Section 4 of the U. S. Constitution, is to be declared unconstitutional, how soon before county and municipal lawbodies, not to mention the Federal Congress itself, are rendered null and void by the Goldberg-Warren excuse for a Supreme Court? ? ?

U. S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Potter Stewart, in a separate dissenting opinion of the June 15, 1964 ruling, wrote:

"The Court's . . . pronouncement, which makes unconstitutional the legislatures of most of the 50 States, finds no support in the words of the Constitution, in any prior decision of this Court, or in the 175-year political history of our Federal Union . . . I am convinced these decisions mark a long step backward into that unhappy era when a majority of the members of this Court were thought by many to have convinced themselves and each other that the demands of the Constitution were to be measured not by what it says, but by their own notions of wise political theory . . . The rule announced today . . . stifles values of local individuality and initiative vital to the character of the Federal Union which it was the genius of our Constitution to create."

"The powers delegated . . . to the federal government are few and defined. Those which are to remain in the State government are numerous and indefinite. . . The powers reserved to the state will extend to all the objects which, in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, liberties, and properties of the people, and the internal order, improvement, and prosperity of the state."

—James Madison

THE PROTOCOLS

Seems some Senate Committee without having any witnesses present, decided the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion were not authentic. In view of this biased report, we urge every open-minded reader to purchase a copy of the PROTOCOLS and read them carefully several times, compare them with events taking place today. Then send us your unbiased opinion of whether the PROTOCOLS are authentic or are not authentic. We will then take a "Gallup poll" of the results. We assure our readers our findings will be just as unbiased as any Senate Comm. or Gallup Poll. Price $1.00

COMMUNISM'S INFLUENCE IN CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

"... the Communists have a 'program minimum' that must weaken democratic capitalist America to such an extent that she will be no serious rival to totalitarian Russia. The simplest way to achieve this objective is to create disunity inside the United States—to promote racial and social conflicts, epidemics of hatred, suspicion, intolerance and political demoralization until the situation borders on civil war."

—Brigadier General Alexander Barmine, Russian exile who fled to the U.S.A. in 1940 to later become an American citizen (Oct. 1944 Reader's Digest).

"... it is to the interest of the Communist world conspiracy to promote and foster discontent of every possible kind... violence and disorder, especially between the races, are specific strategic objectives of the Communist Party in America."

—Senator James Eastland (July 22, 1964, U.S. Senate).

"The rioting and violence in Harlem and Brooklyn is regrettable, of course. It does seem, however, to focus attention for the first time on the key role which Communists have been playing in racial disturbances in this country... The difficulty with controlling these Communist-instigated riots in the North lies in the fact that our national leaders have encouraged lawlessness and civil disobedience, and this has been permitted to go too far under Communist inspiration and direction."

—Senator Strom Thurmond, interview with U.S. News & World Report, August, 10, 1964.

"There is no question that the Communists are heavily involved (in civil rights groups), more than people care to admit. And the Negro people are the Communist Party's largest target. And you have to admit the Communists have had some measure of success."

—Herbert Philbrick, who lived for 9 years as a Communist agent for the FBI (N.Y. Journal American, Aug. 7, 1964).

"The International Communist Conspiracy has for many years boasted that the racial question would form the core and center of an American revolution which would result in the domination of this country by the communists... The invasion of Mississippi, by expeditionary forces from other States, was carefully planned by the communist conspiracy, for the express purpose of creating civil disturbance beyond the ability of a single state to provide protection, which would result in a demand by the communist leaders in America that the federal government occupy the State of Mississippi, establish martial law, which would suspend habeas corpus, trial by civilian courts, and in fact suspend the entire Bill of Rights. If this is accomplished in Mississippi, it will expand into other states with destructive effect upon freedom and liberty. The cunning communists have been able to entice fine Americans to do their work, but the guiding hand is still the communist conspiracy."

—"Washington Report" of Congressman James B. Utt.

COMMUNIST PARTY U. S. A.

The Communist Party in this country continues its unswerving allegiance to the Soviet Union, which is committed to the goal of world domination and conquest by communism.

Blindly following the Soviet lead in all facets of international developments, it parrots the Soviet contention that there has been a shift toward communism in the balance of forces in the world that makes possible Communist advances without resorting to armed conflict in every area. As a result, the Communist Party, U.S.A. found itself embroiled in the Sino-Soviet dispute as to the means of communizing the world. In a public statement issued in January 1963, the party in this country announced it had sided with the Soviet Union in the dispute and defended the Soviet policy in the Cuban crisis. When the Communist Party of China severely attacked the Communist Party, U.S.A. for its Russian support, the Soviets quickly showed their backing of the Communist Party, U.S.A. The March 17, 1963, issue of Pravda—which is the official publication of the Soviet Communist Party—contained an entire page devoted to a series of tributes designed to show the solidarity of the Soviet Union with the party in this country.

CURRENT PARTY ISSUES

Currently, the Communist Party, U.S.A. is stressing such domestic issues as the racial struggle; the abolition of all internal security programs and of congressional committees investigating communism; and the reduction of military spending with the diversion of such appropriations to a broad program of social welfare projects. In short, the party is attempting to exploit what it describes as the built-in problems of our modern, complex, industrial society and claiming, at the same time, that these problems can be resolved only under the Communist system.

On the international level, the party is dutifully echoing Soviet propaganda regarding peaceful coexistence and peaceful competition, disarmament, an end to nuclear testing and increased East-West trade. In every phase of its propaganda on international relations, the party line has been that all Soviet actions reveal a desire for easing tension while American foreign policy is designed to incite world tension.

The above is from testimony given by J. Edgar Hoover, January 29, 1964, to Committee on Appropriations House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Johnson's "PEACE" Record

By F. George Kennedy, Milwaukee Metro

President Lyndon B. Johnson recently told reporters that there is much to be optimistic about in the world situation. He said things have improved over the past four years, and said if he is re-elected he will continue the policies of the last years which have lead to "peace." Let's look at the record.

FRANCE: President Charles De Gaulle openly appeases the Communists and calls for the "Neutralization" of Southeast Asia.

ENGLAND: Prime Minister Douglas Home's Conservative party, vies with Harold Wilson, labor party chief, in appeasement policies with the Soviet Union. Both men and their parties are strong advocates of so-called "disarmament."

WEST GERMANY: Ludwig Erhard has hinted that his country may be willing to recognize some of the Eastern European Communist countries. He has been encouraged to do so by the United States. West Germany remains one of the last hopes for the freedom of Eastern Europe.

EAST GERMANY: The Communists continue to suppress the hungry masses in ever increasing brutality, despite so-called "softening" of the Communist line. The wall grows thicker in East Berlin.

FORMOSA: Nationalists have been threatened with cut-offs in U. S. aid if they oppose Red China militarily in any way.

VIETNAM. Meanwhile American boys continue to fight Red Chinese in Viet Cong uniforms in a losing battle with World War II equipment, and commanders who would rather switch than fight.

LAOS: The U.S. imposed Neutral government in Laos has failed and failed and failed, while the U. S. continues to negotiate, negotiate, negotiate.

CAMBODIA: Our recognition of Neutralism here has resulted in another ally for the Bamboo branch of the International Communist movement.

BURMA: Things are so bad here, they even turn down American aid.

THAILAND: The onward rush of the Communists will soon leave this country... one of our friends... completely isolated. Thus, Southeast Asia will fall.

CUBA: Stands as a shining example of American weakness and capitulation.

PERU: Ripe for Communist take over.

BRAZIL: Safe for the moment from the Reds without our help. Had the Communists been running the revolution there, we would have been the first in line.

BRITISH GUIANA: A Communist launching base going virtually unnoticed.

TIBET: Where are the reports on this tiny nation since it was swallowed up by the Reds in 1959?
